

*The Medical Bulletin

In Diabetes

- Reference: Annals of the New York Academy of Sciences
- Impact of diabetes on cognitive function and brain structure
- A Moheet etal

Cognition deficits of mild to moderate degree are seen in T2DM especially in territories of memory, psychomotor speed and executive function. Cognition changes are well observed, early in T2DM, comparing to non Diabetic control. The risk factors are duration of Diabetes, Glycemic control and Microvascular Complications. T2DM rises the risk of dementia in Elders.

Dr. R. Rajasekar
Senior Physician & Diabetologist, Kumbakonam